1. Purpose

This scholarship supports academically able students at the Ara Institute of Canterbury, Lincoln University, or the University of Canterbury whose financial or personal circumstances might have prevented them from considering entry to tertiary education in the absence of the scholarship.

2. Eligibility criteria

- 2.1 Applicants must be citizens of New Zealand or holders of New Zealand residence class visas.
- 2.2 Applicants must have been studying at secondary level in New Zealand in the year of application.
- 2.3 Applicants must have resided in either the Christchurch, Waimakariri or Selwyn regions¹ for at least the 12 months immediately preceding the closing date for applications .

3. Selection process

- 3.1 One scholarship is available annually.

3.2 The scholarship is awarded by the Riccarton Rotary Youth Trust for a programme for which the applicant intends to enrol in the following year, at either the Ara Institute of Canterbury, Lincoln University, or the University of Canterbury.

4. Selection criteria

- 4.1 In making the recommendation the nominees of the Riccarton Rotary Youth Trust consider:
- a. personal or financial circumstances restricting the applicant's ability to enter tertiary education;
 - b. academic achievement; and
 - c. general character, community involvement, and likelihood of successful completion of the intended programme of study, as evidenced by a letter of support from the applicant's school.
- 4.2 Preference is given to applicants who have received their secondary education while residing in, or attending a school in, the Riccarton Ward of Christchurch.²
- 4.2 If, in any year, there is no candidate of sufficient merit, no scholarship is awarded.

5. Application process

Applications must be made using the application form found here, to the Riccarton Rotary Youth Trust by email by 31 August³. No late applications will be accepted.

6. Tenability

- 6.1 The scholarship must be taken up in the year following the year of application.
- 6.2 The scholarship is tenable during full-time enrolment in a degree programme at the Ara Institute of Canterbury, or Lincoln University, or the University of Canterbury.
- 6.3 The scholarship is tenable for three years. On request to the Riccarton Rotary Youth Trust Scholarships office, extension for a fourth year of tenure may be recommended by the nominees of the Riccarton Rotary Youth Trust.
- 6.4 Normally, the scholarship is not co-tenable with any other award. However, the nominees of the Riccarton Rotary Youth Trust may recommend co-tenability if the candidate has extenuating circumstances and the conditions of the other award do not preclude co-tenure.

7. Value and payment schedule

- 7.1 The scholarship has a value of $10,000.
- 7.2 The value of the scholarship is paid to the recipient's tertiary institution (Ara Institute of Canterbury, Lincoln University, or University of Canterbury). In any year that the recipient is required to pay tuition fees the institution credits the recipient's tuition fees account at the time of full-time enrolment in a degree programme, and any remaining balance is credited to the recipient's nominated New Zealand bank account. In any year that the recipient is not required to pay tuition fees the scholarship is credited to the recipient's nominated New Zealand bank account on confirmation of full-time enrolment in a degree programme. NB: Any balance remaining after tuition fees have been paid to the institution of choice, will be credited to the recipients New Zealand bank account.
